

Board of Delegates Recap

2024

→ October 2024

Meeting Summary

Central Pines Regional Council held its October Board of Delegates meeting on Wednesday, October 23, 2024. The meeting featured a highlight on recreation in the region. Brian Fork, Carolina Hurricanes CEO, and former Hurricanes player Shane Willis, also the Director of Youth Hockey & Community Outreach for the Hurricanes, joined the meeting to share how they are planning to expand the area around the Lenovo Center and engage more people in hockey in the region. They discussed the history of the franchise, how youth hockey has grown in the region, and answered questions from the Board.

Representatives from the City of Durham, Town of Chapel Hill, and Town of Apex served on a panel and discussed the unique aspects of their parks and recreation departments. Each of the panelists shared an overview of their programs, and highlighted key initiatives, facilities, and community engagement efforts.
